

Francesco Del litto

Bio-sketch: Dr. Del Litto has worked in the chemical and petrochemical sector for almost 30 years in a leading company in the sector. He has held roles as a process technologist and HSE manager, dealing with building models to support HSE certifications. He dealt with the management of accidents, taking care of risk analyses. He followed activities in the Safety field, taking care of standards, service contracts and coordination and control activities with many sites Italian and foreign. Managed HSE Due Diligence activities for big asset acquisitions. He oversaw the preparation and updating of HSE company standards. He carried out contract management and supplier qualification activities in the HSE field.