

Dr. Muñoz holds a Bachelor Degree in Chemical Engineering from Valladolid University and a PhD in Environmental Biotechnology from Lund University (2005). Raul is Associate Professor of the Department of Chemical Engineering and Environmental Technology at the University of Valladolid. His main fields of expertise are biological gas treatment, biogas upgrading and wastewater treatment in algal-bacterial photobioreactors.

Over the last 10 years, he has published more than 160 ISI papers, 25 book chapters and presented the work of the group in 127 International Conference.